Come and meet Kiko, the flying chicken

On the first Saturday of each month, the Emotions Museum of Childhood and Patakis Publications host a book presentation at which the public can hear about titles put out by the publisher. On Saturday, November 7, the author of "Kiko, i kota pou emathe na petai" (Kiko, the Chicken that Learned to Fly), Manolis Mavroleon, will read extracts from the children's book and lead a series of amusing and educational activities. Although the presentation itself starts at 1 p.m., visitors are welcome to come to the museum earlier to take part in a number of activities and games that it organizes for youngsters at weekends.
